Hon'ble P.C. Verma, J.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned counsel for the State.

Petitioners were initially appointed as Assistant Teacher in L.T. Grade and after one year their appointments were cancelled and the services of the petitioners were terminated. The petitioners were again appointed after a day of their termination. Now the petitioners are working till date. The subsequent appointment of the petitioners itself indicate initial appointment of the petitioners were not illegal.

Therefore, one day break shall be ignored for the purpose of seniority and other benefits in service.

With these aforesaid observation, the writ petition is disposed of.

(P.C. Verma, J.)

P. Singh
Dt. 13.06.2001